As the weather changes, I’d like to acknowledge a change within our agency. Congratulations are in order for our newly elected Chairman, Bill Farley, and our new Vice Chair, Angela Showell. Both are active leaders and our agency looks forward to their guidance.

I had the honor of addressing the Veterans Mental Health Summit in September. I informed the audience about the mental health issues facing veterans and how they often manifest during active service. It is important for the Commission to help find additional mental health resources for veterans. I am working with state mental health agencies to find assistance for veterans, while working to find ways for veterans to access their care. The Federal Veterans Affairs Health System continues to work this issue but they are not the sole mental health resource.

The month of November features our Delaware Veterans Trust Fund Dinner and our Veterans Day Ceremony. Our trust fund has done an outstanding job of assisting veterans in financial need. By supporting the dinner we will gain additional funds to assist future veteran requests. The dinner is Friday, November 4th and additional information can be found in this newsletter. Our ceremony is one of our keystone events which pays tribute to those who have served. The ceremony is Friday, November 11th at 10:30 am. Same location, at the Delaware Memorial Bridge Monument. Come out and honor the service of our military heroes.

DELVETS HONORING 70 YEARS OF SERVING VETERANS

DELVETS Post #1 was established 70 years ago in 1946 and is one of the oldest veterans’ organizations in the State of Delaware. This year we celebrate 70 years of serving veterans in the community.

On August 3, 2016 we honored John Clark Houck, a 97 year old WWII veteran who joined Post #1 in August 1946 and has been a member for 70 years. This is a unique occasion in the State of Delaware where one of the first and major veterans organization honors one of its outstanding members and a State’s senior WWII veteran.

State Senator Harris McDowell, a Marine veteran, presented Mr. Houck with a Proclamation from the Delaware State Senate. Congratulations were also sent to Mr. Houck by U.S. Senator Tom Carper, a Vietnam veteran and New Castle County Register of Wills Ciro Poppiti, a member of the Delaware National Guard.

Post #1 was established by a group of Delaware WWII veterans. In the spring of 1946, returning veterans of WWII including charter members – Henry W. Bryan, Eugene A. Delle Donne, Robert K. Emmons, John E. Healy II, George F. Kelly Jr., James C. Stewart, William W. Swayze, James F. Toner, Jr., and Robert P. Vandergrift formed the Veterans Organization. The Post continues to provide services to more than 700 members.

THE BRONZE CROSS PRESENTATION TO CADET ERIKA WHITE

The members of the Legion of Valor (LOV) are recipients of either the Medal of Honor, the highest award our nation issues for valor, while serving in the Armed Services of the United States, or The Distinguished Service Cross, Navy Cross or Air Force Cross, our Nation's second highest award for extraordinary heroism. Members of the LOV are truly the best our Nation has to offer.

The Bronze Cross Achievement Program was ordained as a National Program in 1957. The criteria for the Award has been developed by the LOV in conjunction with officials of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

In general, the standards of achievement for the award are similar to those required of the Army’s Superior Cadet Award and has been adopted by the Navy, Marine Corp and Air Force. Because of the rigid standards, the LOV Bronze Cross for Achievement is issued in limited quantities to cadets and midshipman who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement, extraordinary leadership and community service. On average 60-65 annually, 77 will be issued this year.

In reading and hearing about Cadet White, her credentials embody dedication, a “can-do” attitude, an insatiable appetite for learning an ability to make a difference in her community, all by leading by example; hallmarks of a great leader.

It is my distinct honor and privilege, as an associate member of the LOV, to present the LOV Bronze Cross Achievement Award to Cadet Erika White.

In Delaware, Stolen Valor Now Comes at a Heavy Price

Stolen valor is now against the law in Delaware and comes with a $1,000 fine. As of Aug. 9, those seeking to benefit from impersonating a veteran or active duty military personnel in Delaware are likely to pay a steep fine instead. Submitted on April 1, 2015, House Bill 80 was unanimously approved by the General Assembly and signed into law by Gov. Jack Markell earlier this month, according to the Cape Gazette.

The law takes effect immediately and expands upon previous legislation regarding criminal impersonation. Colloquially called stolen valor, the new law defines it as follows: anyone impersonating or claiming to be a service member or veteran as a means to obtain money, property, or any other tangible benefit.

The law also applies to military veterans who attempt to benefit from embellishing the rank they received while in the service.

The crime is now a Class A misdemeanor and results in a $1,000 fine that cannot be reduced or suspended.

“I think veterans deserve all the respect we can possibly give them. This law will serve to help protect the legacy they worked so hard to create,” said Rich Collins of Delaware’s House of Representatives and one of the law’s sponsors, in an interview with the Cape Gazette. (James Clark/August 23, 2016)

On August 8, 2016, officers of the MyVA Community Delaware Board signed the charter officially bringing the organization to life. MyVA Community Delaware is a cooperative effort between Delaware State and private volunteer agencies and all elements of the Department of Veterans Affairs in Delaware. The organization will conduct outreach, develop community partnerships, and strengthen relationships across the state with agencies, non-profits, businesses, and faith-based institutions who will commit to supporting Delaware veterans.

TFCC Veterans Ministry

Trinity Faith Christian Center (TFCC) Veteran’s Ministry, established in 2010, provides helpful information to veterans and their families about benefits and resources available to veterans. In addition to looking for outreach opportunities in the community, their goal is to “get the veteran to the right place” so as to get the veteran the help that they need.

Trinity Faith Christian Center has several veterans within its congregation; seeing that there was a need for a more focused outreach within the congregation, Bishop Arthur D. Jones established the TFCC Veteran’s Ministry and appointed Mr. James Hooper (US Army) to head up the endeavor.

Recently the TFCC Veterans Ministry celebrated Independence Day, July 4th Celebration, with family and friends. The event saw over 200 attendees who participated in games for children and grown-ups, ate delicious BBQ and cheered on participants in the much anticipated 4th July car show. During the event, the TFCC Veteran’s Ministry handed out veteran related information and giveaways. Pictured below, Mr. Hooper (LHS) along with Mr. Samuel Hart (US Navy).

For more information about the TFCC Veterans Ministry, you may call Mr. Hooper at (302) 393-9475 or reach the ministry at Trinity Faith Christian Center, 15516 New Road, Lewes, Delaware 19958, (302) 645-5446.

KWVA HOSTS COMMISSION SPEAKER

Mr. Kirby, a 30 year veteran of the US Air Force, spoke about the mission of his organization, the Commission Trust Fund and the future plans and goals to help our Delaware veterans. His message was very well presented to an audience wanting to learn more about the Commission and its operations. A question and answer period followed his presentation.

First State Events

Saturday, September 17, marks two occasions. The most important was the ratification of the United States Constitution in 1787, followed six weeks later by Delaware’s approval on December 7, making us ‘The First State.’ The second significant event on that date for First State veterans was the 2013 signing of the Delaware Veterans Trust Fund into law by Gov. Jack Markell.

“We have an obligation to ensure Veterans receive the support, services and respect they rightly deserve,” said Governor Markell at the signing ceremony at the Commission of Veterans Affairs. “This legislation underscores our commitment to the men and women who bravely serve in our armed forces.”

Tuskegee Award

Commissioner Daniel Coons was invited to attend the Tuskegee Airmen Inc. annual convention held in Indianapolis, IN on July 16, 2016, where he received the Captain Lemuel Rodney Custis National Award for outstanding contributions toward the goals and objectives of the Tuskegee Airmen. This includes creating a program for disadvantaged youth, inspiring them to and guiding them through an aviation career, providing significant opportunities for college scholarships, providing inspiration to study and/or pursue aerospace and/or military careers and inspiring youth to complete high school and pursue advanced education.

Commissioner Coons was presented with a medal and a check which he will donate to an aviation scholarship fund at the Delaware State University which was created by his former students in his honor.

Dr. Coons, founder of the DE State University Aviation Program, is introduced to one of the original Tuskegee Airman and former P-51 fighter pilot, Leo Gray.

Delaware had Women Ferry Pilots before the WASPs

At the September Meeting of the First State Military Women Warriors (FSMWW), speaker Jan Churchill, shared lots of interesting facts from her latest book, Pioneer Women Military Pilots. One of the most surprising was that the mobilization of the Women's Auxiliary Ferrying Squadron (WAFS) started in September 1942 in New Castle. A little later a women pilot training program was started at other bases. Nearly a year later, in August of 1943 these were all combined to form the Women Air Force Service Pilots (WASPs).

Another interesting tidbit is there was a new aircraft that the men refused to fly; so they trained several women to fly it. Within a few months of the women flying to various bases, the men were shamed into flying it. Want to know which aircraft it was? Guess you will have to get the book to find out. Author, Jan Churchill, is also a pilot and a Director for the Delaware Military Heritage and Education Foundation and Curator of the Delaware Military Museum. The proceeds from this and many of her books go to the museum.

The First State Military Women Warriors meet four times a year, usually with a speaker focusing on topics of interest to military women. In between these meetings, FSMWW does fundraisers and participates in other programs to benefit veterans and the community.

FSMWW’s Mission is to:

- Keep all military women, past and present, informed of current benefits associated with their military service
- Keep women veterans connected while preserving our common history
- Provide opportunities for women in tomorrow’s armed forces through networking, socialization, and service with and for other women veterans

Deliver Excellence!
Veterans contacting the local VA should take notice of some great changes put in place for you when calling to make appointments. These changes are designed to improve the Veteran experience and increase the timeliness of our communication to more effectively meet their needs.

“In the past, we have heard from veterans about waiting too long for their call to be answered when trying to call the medical center or one of the five Community Based Outpatient Clinics,” said Robin C. Aube-Warren, medical center director. “It was hugely frustrating for veterans calling and not being able to speak with someone.”

Last week, the medical center successfully completed activation of a Call Center assuring calls are answered in a timely manner by trained operators. The Call Center, located at the medical center in Elsmere, Delaware began phasing-in the center over several months. The gradual roll-out allowed staff to work through processes and ensure a seamless transition for callers.

The new process means calls are being answered quickly by trained staff that can schedule appointments, efficiently route calls to appropriate personnel, and provide basic information about VA benefits. A nurse triage line was added as part of the Call Center and is manned by nurses from the Butler VAMC. During business hours, veterans are able to access nurse triage services similar to those already offered after hours.

According to the most recent data, calls are being answered within 8 seconds or less,” said Christine O’Donnell chief of health administration service at the Wilmington VAMC.

“We are really excited about the new Call Center and confident Veterans will like the changes,” said Aube-Warren. Equally exciting, veterans actively receiving care at VA can directly make appointments with local VA audiology and optometry clinics without going through their primary care provider.

"The Direct Scheduling initiative is a major change in the way VA does business. Previously, veterans had to visit their primary care physician for a referral to the eye clinic even if they had no other health care issues. We have sped-up the process by skipping that step and allowing veterans to book appointments directly with the Eye and Audiology Clinics," said Optometrist Brian Mahoney.

The change is expected to save time for veterans and free-up primary care clinical appointments.

The Wilmington VA along with other medical centers across the nation is participating in the direct scheduling initiative. All VA medical centers will adopt the new policies by the end of the year.

"We are honored to be a part in this effort," said Aube-Warren. "The direct scheduling program and the new Call Center affirm the medical center's commitment to improving access for veterans."

To take advantage of direct scheduling, veterans can call the Wilmington VA Medical Center at (302) 994-2511.

Military Service Members
Celebration

At Christiana Care Health System, our employees who are service members and veterans personify The Christiana Care Way as respectful, expert, caring partners in providing that exceptional experience for our patients and their families. They bring a wealth of real-world experience and technical knowledge that will further our commitment to providing optimal health and an exceptional experience.

We know that the military often provides those who serve with the opportunity to work with people from all over the world in a variety of environments. Those experiences are beneficial in serving our diverse population of patients and families with an exceptional level of safety and care.

Serving our country, wherever they are needed, is a testament to the dedication of the men and women in uniform. By developing strategic partnerships with former and current service member organizations, we can enable these individuals to continue to serve local communities through Christiana Care employment.

Christiana Care already has a number of military members and veterans in our ranks, throughout the organization, in a variety of roles. We look forward to honoring them at our Veterans Recognition Military Service Members Celebration on Wednesday, November 9th, 2016 from 10:00AM - 11:30 PM in the John H. VETERANS APPLE PIE SOCIAL

White Clay Creek State Park has hosted the Veterans Day Storytelling program at the lovely Judge Morris Estate on Polly Drummond Hill Road for several years. Veteran groups and individuals have shared their experiences in service and home front efforts with interested visitors each year at an event the Sunday closest to Veterans Day.

Perkins Restaurant has donated delicious pies that are served with tea or coffee on the patio or inside the estate. Last year WWII veterans Bill Kitchens, Warner Schlaupitz, Robert Austin, Joseph Gwiazdowski and veterans from other time periods have offered their time and effort to make this annual program a success for many years. White Clay Creek State Park continues to sponsor this program to honor all our local veterans and all supporting individuals from all the conflicts in recent history.

Last year Korean War Vet, George Taylor, brought his trumpet and played the Star Spangled Banner and Taps as he has for countless veteran funeral services over the years.

Serving our country, wherever they are needed, is a testament to the dedication of the men and women in uniform. By developing strategic partnerships with former and current service member organizations, we can enable these individuals to continue to serve local communities through Christiana Care employment.

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA CEREMONIES

The Delaware General Assembly will host a Wreaths Across America ceremony at Legislative Hall on Monday, December 12, 2016 at 11:30 a.m. The public is invited. State House ceremonies in all 50 states and Washington, D.C. are part of a week-long celebration of America’s veterans and their service to our country, with a particular focus on family during the holidays.

“This nationwide program is about remembering our fallen heroes, honoring those who serve and teaching our children about the sacrifices made by veterans and their families to preserve our freedoms,” said event organizers. The originator of the wreath laying program was Morrill Worcester, owner of a wreath making company in Maine who in 1991 donated and delivered wreaths to Arlington National Cemetery to be placed on the graves of the fallen.

The WAA program’s mission of “Remember, Honor, Teach,” spreads the message of the importance of remembering our fallen heroes, honoring those who serve and teaching our children about the sacrifices made by veterans and their families to preserve our freedoms. A large wreath honoring all five branches of the armed forces will placed at the base of the Delaware Continentals Statue. Additional wreaths will be laid on the grounds of Legislative Hall, at the Gulf War Memorial, the Dover Light Infantry Memorial Wreath, the World War II Memorial and the Medal of Honor Memorial. The ceremony will include a volley and TAPS. (Lori Christiansen)

Delaware Law School announces “Military Mondays” program to benefit First State veterans

Meetings to be held in Nemours Building Starbucks

Widener University Delaware Law School and its Veterans Law Clinic are proud to announce a new program aimed to benefit Delaware veterans.

Through the “Military Mondays” program, Veterans Law Clinic staff attorneys and student interns will conduct sit-down meetings with veterans in need of legal advice. Using space provided by Starbucks, one-hour meetings will be available to veterans who have legal questions about their claims for benefits through the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs.

The program will operate one Monday a month out of the Starbucks in the Nemours Building, 1007 N. Orange St., Wilmington. All meetings will be by appointment between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Appointments can be made by contacting Denise Paul, office manager of the Veterans Law Clinic, at 302.477.2056 or dmpaul@widener.edu. Initial dates are:

Monday, Oct. 17.
Monday, Nov. 14.
Monday, Dec. 5.

The free program is intended to assist veterans who need advice on benefit claims. Clinic attorneys and student interns will answer questions and make recommendations to veterans on how they can proceed for themselves. No formal attorney-client relationship will attach from the meetings. Starbucks began Military Mondays last year in Virginia. The program is one of many the company has established in its effort to hire more than 10,000 military veterans by 2018.

“We are excited to bring Military Mondays to Delaware. It is an excellent, additional avenue for us to give back to the veteran community and an outstanding hands-on learning opportunity for our law students,” said clinic Director and Visiting Assistant Professor Amber Baylor. “We hope this location in Wilmington will be convenient for people to visit with us, and the relaxed Starbucks atmosphere will make it easy for them to discuss their questions.”

Widener University was among the first law schools in the United States to start a clinical program for disabled veterans. Through the Veterans Law Clinic, students work under the supervision of practicing attorneys to provide free legal representation to disabled veterans and their dependents with Veterans Affairs compensation claim appeals to the Board of Veterans Appeals. First known as the Veterans Assistance Program, Widener students began the work in 1997, when the school co-sponsored a program with the pro bono arm of the Delaware State Bar Association. It became known as the Veterans Law Clinic in January 2006 and today serves veterans largely in Pennsylvania and Delaware, having recovered more than $9 million in benefits owed to veterans.

Widener University is a metropolitan university that connects curricula to social issues through civic engagement. Dynamic teaching, active scholarship, personal attention, applied leadership, and experiential learning are key components of the Widener experience. Its Delaware Law School is the First State’s only law school, providing juris doctor, legal graduate and paralegal degree programs with an emphasis on developing legal professionals who reflect the Delaware Way and its traditions of civility, integrity and mutual respect. The school offers signature programs in corporate and business law, environmental law, family health law and policy, and trial advocacy. Widener University is proud to be tobacco free. Military OneSource is a confidential Department of Defense-funded program providing comprehensive information on every aspect of military life at no cost to active duty, Guard and Reserve Component members, and their families. Information includes, but is not limited to, deployment, reunion, relationship, grief, spouse employment and education, parenting and childhood, and much more.

Military OneSource has policy and programmatic information, helpful resources, products, articles and tips on numerous topics related to military life. Confidential services are available 24 hours a day by telephone and online. In addition to the website support, Military OneSource offers confidential call center and online support for consultations on a number of issues such as spouse education and career opportunities, issues specific to families with a member with special needs, health coaching, financial support, and resources.

Military OneSource also offers confidential non-medical counseling services online, via telephone, or face to face. Eligible individuals may receive confidential non-medical counseling addressing issues requiring short-term attention, including everyday stressors, deployment and reintegration concerns, parenting, grief and loss, and marital problems as well as assistance with financial management, taxes, career services, health and wellness, and much more. This personalized support is available 24/7 no matter where you live or serve.
The effect of military service can be profound and lasting. There are a number of financial, social and health issues that result from military service. Some Wounded Warriors and Veterans who have a compensation rating of 100% P&T are unaware that Social Security may expedite the processing of their disability claims.

Benefits available through Social Security are different than those from the Department of Veterans Affairs and require a separate application. The expedited process is used for military service members who become disabled while on active military service on or after October 1, 2001, regardless of where the disability occurs.

Starting March 17, 2014, veterans who have a VA compensation rating of 100% permanent and total (P&T) may receive expedited processing of applications for Social Security disability benefits.

What do I need to know about the VA & Social Security programs?
Both Social Security and VA pay disability benefits. However, their programs, processes and criteria for receiving benefits are very different.

A VA compensation rating of 100% Permanent and Total does not guarantee that you will receive Social Security disability benefits. To be approved for Social Security benefits, you must meet Social Security’s definition of “disability.” To be found disabled:
- You must be unable to do substantial work because of your medical condition (s); and
- Your medical condition (s) must have lasted, or be expected to last, at least one year or to result in death.

If you receive VA compensation, this will not affect your Social Security benefits.

You can also find your local SS Office through the website.

The Veterans United Outreach of Delaware was started in May 2001, under Kent County Chapter 850, Vietnam Veterans of America. The VVA motto is “Never again will one generation of veterans abandon another.” This motto has been taken to heart by those who started the outreach program. The purpose of this program is to reach out to all military/veteran brothers and sisters on educational, physical, mental, emotional and spiritual levels, so as to guide them to freedom and comfort in their own lives. They work with all who are willing to help accomplish their goals.

The Outreach networks with federal, state and local agencies and coordinates with all organizations in Delaware. Through it all, they are constantly changing and growing.

They are a veterans committee with a foundation in God, Country, and Freedom, to which they credit the sacrifices of our active duty military, our veterans, and their families. (Mike Snyder, 302-678-1285)
